

Will Present Show Here

"Songdusters" will dust off their music and costumes and add several more acts to their last year's show, "Capt. Rogers Showboat," for a new presentation here in November, Mrs. R. L. Hultz, press chairman, announced this week.

Local PTAs will join in sponsoring the event to raise money for philanthropy purposes, she said.

The chorus made plans for the show last Monday night when the first 1953-54 meeting was held at the 1850 W. 262nd St., Lomita home of Mrs. H. V. Blakesley. Rehearsals for Christmas music will begin soon. Director Roger Bushell announced, and any organization wishing to book the chorus for a Christmas program may do so by calling Mrs. Blakesley at Davenport 6-1881 or Mrs. A. T. Leavell at Terminal 2-4221.

Anyone interested in joining the group also may call Mrs. Blakesley for a private audition, for members voted to accept a limited number of initiates. Membership to date includes the following:

Mesdames Blakesley, accompanist and Lomita music chairman; Leavell, San Pedro music chairman; Don Brown, treasurer;
